

The BSW Program Mission Statement

The mission of the BSW Program at Jarvis Christian College is to prepare competent entry-level generalist practitioners to address the needs of individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities within the context of social, economic, environmental justice for those oppressed; and through the interaction with multiple social service agencies in regional, national and international communities.