The History of the College

Founded in 1912, through the efforts of Black Disciples and the Christian Women's Board of Missions, Jarvis Christian College was modeled after the Southern Christian Institute at Edwards, Mississippi, as an elementary school. It later became a high school, junior college and finally an accredited four-year liberal arts college. The land for the school in Hawkins, Texas, was donated in 1910 by Major and Mrs. J.J. Jarvis, for whom the College is named.

Jarvis Christian College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia, 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Jarvis Christian College.

Mission Statement

Jarvis Christian College, a traditional liberal arts institution, provides a quality education in the Judeo-Christian tradition. The mission of the College is to prepare students intellectually, socially and personally to function effectively in a global and technological society.
